• ABOUT ME

Highly resourceful and proactive candidate with over 14 years of experience in the culinary industry. I stand out not only for my culinary skills but also for my focus on administration and customer service. Passionate about operational excellence, I have built a strong track record in team management, cost control, and creating exceptional experiences for customers. My fluency in English, developed throughout my life and during two years of residency in the United States, enhances my ability to communicate effectively in a multicultural environment. I am ready to contribute my extensive experience and versatile skills in a dynamic work setting.
